Discussion was held around the percentages table and the possible reasons why some percentages are low at this time of year – timing is a large factor. Thank You to Keir Morrison (DP) for this report. New Enrolments Discussion around that, reasons why there tend to be ongoing enrolments throughout the year and any perceived challenges this presents to the school. Indicators Discussion in regards to the stand downs and suspensions. Karen spoke to the techniques in place to try to reduce suspension to the Board. Karen updated the Trustees on the current situation with the CoL. During the 2 days of enrolments last week there was positive feedback from parents that the school did not require BYOD and that classes were not solely run with the requirement for all students to own a device. 6.3 Emergent Review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Carruth House: Mid-Year Review Discussion was held in regards to the low numbers this year and potentially lower numbers for 2020. International Department: Marketing Trip March / April 2019 Whilst International Student numbers are still low there has been a definite positive lift in our International profile since our new Director was appointed. To cultivate strong relationships with Agents and grow our student numbers takes time and we must allow this to happen before seeing positive results. Thank you to Vanita Lomas (Director of International Students) for her overseas marketing trip report. 6.4 Health, Safety & Wellbeing Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The lockdown drill with Harrison Tew has been completed.
