

EXTERNAL COMMUNICATION

Rationale:

Communication with external stakeholders must reflect the school's strategic plan, and preserve the school's good reputation.

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for communication with the media and other external parties.

Definitions:

Media – includes television, newspaper, radio, social media or any other public communication channel.

Scope:

This policy applies to all staff and board members.

Guidelines:

1. The Principal (or in their absence, a nominated Deputy Principal), may speak to the media about day to day operational matters.
2. The Board Presiding Member may speak to the media about board matters including matters involving the Principal.
3. Staff may not discuss any school issues with the media. If contacted they should make "no comment" reply and refer the matter to the Principal or Presiding Member.
4. Staff may be delegated by the Principal to liaise with the media about specific operational matters (e.g. sport cancellations).
5. Staff may not make negative comments on school matters (including about students or staff) in the community. Negative comments may be misinterpreted, have serious unintended consequences and cause damage to individual or school reputation.
